Pre-Sessional Intensive English Language for direct entry onto HNC Electronic Engineering.

7 week Pre-Sessional Intensive English programme from Monday 22 February 2010 to 23 April 2010

- Have you waited too long to sit your IELTS?
- Or have achieved a 5.0 and do not meet the entry requirements for your course?

The course is targeted at students with at least an upper-intermediate level of English, who are planning to study a further curriculum programme starting soon which is taught in English.

The course will develop your academic reading, listening, writing and speaking skills, including note-taking, study skills and academic vocabulary.

If you wish to take an IELTS exam, this can be arranged towards the end of the course at a cost of £105.

Tuition Cost: £1,500 leading to direct entry onto HNC Electronic Engineering (£5,800 per year) 26 April 2010.
