

Risk Assessment Awareness

Pre-requisites

Candidates do not require any formal entry requirements.

Aim of the course

The Risk Assessment Awareness course is intended to give managers and other employees who have responsibility for carrying out risk assessment in their workplaces an improved level of awareness of the legal and practical issues related to this task. .

Who should attend

- Any Manager from any sector requiring Basic Risk Assessment Training.
- People interested in obtaining a basic Health and Safety knowledge.

Candidates will learn how their organisation can apply hazard identification methods in conjunction with a hierarchy of risk controls to ensure the development of an effective risk control management system, including how to monitor, audit and review the documentation and control protocols.

Objectives of the course

Units covered by the course:

- Introduction to Health & Safety
- General Health & Safety Law practices
- Civil and criminal liabilities
- Accident philosophy
- Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 1999
- Hazard and Risk
- Hazard Identification
- Risk Level quantification
- Risk Control hierarchy
- Risk Control Methods
- Risk Control Precautions
- Risk Control systems
- Practical risk assessment
- Monitoring and reviewing assessments
- Recording and communicating risk assessment

Duration

Half Day (9.30 am – 12.30 pm)

Qualification

College Certificate of attendance for Risk Assessment Awareness.