

Early Years & Education T Level

Study Mode: Full Time Programme Component | Course Level:

Is this course right for me?

If you want a career in the early years sector, this new two-year T Level qualification will give you the skills and knowledge needed for a range of occupations, such as early years educator, learning mentor, student engagement officer or entry to higher education to commence primary education teaching degrees.

T Levels are an alternative to A-levels or an apprenticeship and are designed in conjunction with employers to give you the skills and knowledge they look for when recruiting staff.

As part of the course you will complete a 45-day industry work experience placement in an early years setting, giving you the chance to learn on-the-job, work alongside experienced employees and get a taste of what employment in the sector is like, as well as put the skills you learn in the classroom into practice in the workplace and use your experiences in the workplace to inform your learning in lesson
