

People Management CIPD Level 5 Associate Diploma

Study Mode: Part-time | Course Level: 5

Is this course right for me?

This qualification builds on the CIPD Level 3 Foundation Certificate in People Practice and is aimed at further expanding learners' independent practice to enable you to evolve into more senior roles within organisations as people professionals. Learners' work will be mainly operational with some complexity. You will contribute to the thinking around your work, analysing information to inform choices and actions. Working with and influencing others through your work will create short-term value for a wider audience. Using a framework of HR and L&D understanding, behaviours and skills development, this qualification offers opportunity you learners to transition to employment as people managers.

Are you working in People Management and looking to acquire a professional qualification or to further your HR career? Do you want a career move into a Business Partner role?

If you've answered 'yes' to any of the above questions then this is the course for you!

This qualification extends and fosters a deeper level of understanding and application and naturally progresses learners' expertise in people practice.

It is suited to individuals who:

- are aspiring to, or embarking on, a career in people management
- are working in a people practice role and wish to contribute their knowledge and skills to help shape organisational value
- are working towards or working in a people manager role.

The CIPD Associate Diploma in People Management has clear linkage to the new 2018 Profession Map.

This is a one year part-time course which is predominantly face to face as well as online delivery through Microsoft teams.

Entry Requirements

There are no formal entry requirements for this course, however you must have an appropriate level of English and need to be able to produce written academic assignments of some length.
