

Art, Design & Media (Fashion and Textiles) UAL Level 1 Award

Study Mode: Part time | Course Level: 1

Is this course right for me?

Are you interested in fashion? Whether you are a fashion beginner or an aspiring designer who would like to update or increase your skills we have classes that can suit all levels of ability.

Led by Becci Baylis of the Fabric Rabbit, the course you will allow complete a portfolio of useful garment construction techniques and also includes learning how to measure and apply those techniques to a commercial pattern.

You will also learn about different fabrics, their uses and properties, and will also start your own garment and apply the techniques learned throughout the sessions.*

The course is accredited by the University of the Arts London (UAL) Awarding Body - a specialist awarding body offering up-to-date qualifications in the creative industries. It is owned by, and based within, University of the Arts London. City of Wolverhampton College is the only college in the Black Country, and one of only a few in the Midlands, to be accredited and offer qualifications from the University of Arts London.

Adult funding may be available for this course - for further details please enquire at the Study Hub at any of our campuses.

*You will be required to provide your own patterns and fabric for your garments

Also, if you earn less than £30,000 per year and aged 19 or over, you could study this course for FREE! Take advantage of the new funding and #DoMore with your future.

Entry Requirements

To access this course you are required to have:

- Level 2 in English
- Level 1 qualification in art and design or relevant knowledge/experience in this area

Applications from adults without the necessary qualification but with relevant experience will be considered on an individual basis.

What will I learn?

During this course you will learn:

- Garment construction techniques including zips, seams, buttonholes, sleeves and hems
- Garment design
- Measuring and scale

- Garment construction

What skills will I gain?

By studying this course you will:

- Gain skills and knowledge in fashion and textile , small scale garment design and making
- Explore a variety of materials and resources to develop design techniques
- Learn how to apply techniques for garment construction
- Manipulation of design for purpose
- Find out how to apply your new skills and creativity to a professional level. This will include budgeting, pricing and developing skills within the creative industry to prosper from your work

How will I be assessed?

This is an assignment based course so there are no exams. You will be continually assessed throughout the programme.

What can I do next?

The skills you will learn from this course will enable you to:

- Pursue further study in the Art & Design subject area.

Why study with us?

You'll train in our dedicated facilities which include dedicated fashion and textiles room and equipment. Also available on campus are graphics studios, fashion and print making studios together with a range of classrooms and facilities as part of the Creative Arts department including digital recording studios, TV studios and editing suites. All tutors are active within the art and design industry and have a wealth of knowledge and experience to call upon enabling you the best opportunity to progress in your chosen career.

You'll achieve qualifications accredited by University of Arts London Awarding body (UAL). City of Wolverhampton College is the only college in the Black Country, and one of only a few in the Midlands, to be accredited and offer qualifications from University of Arts London. UAL is a specialist awarding body offering up-to-date qualifications in the creative industries with an emphasis on art, design and communication. It is owned by, and based within, University of the Arts London. More about UAL Awarding Body and the qualifications can be found here: <http://www.arts.ac.uk/awarding>

As part of the National Skills Academy for Creative and Culture we pride ourselves as being at the forefront of education and training for the ever changing Art and Design industry. Linking with local artists and companies and regularly hosting guest speakers, allows all learners to gain current and relevant training which gives them not just a qualification, but the experience in the career they wish to pursue. Arts Council England has endorsed the quality of our teaching and learning and links with employers by awarding us 'Arts Mark Gold'.

Delivery

Location: Paget Road Campus

Start Date: 13/09/2022

Day:

Time: EVENING

Course Fee:

Course Code: Q1349

Study Mode: Part time

Apply online: www.wolvcoll.ac.uk/apply