

Construction and The Built Environment (Construction) Pearson BTEC Level 4 Higher Technical Qualification

Study Mode: Full-time | Course Level: 4

Is this course right for me?

More and more construction employers are looking for staff with have higher level qualifications, so this higher technical qualification in could help you land the job or the promotion you want!

HTQs were introduced in 2023 and are a great option if you're looking to gain more technical knowledge in your chosen field and are developed by employers to be career-focussed, focus on practical and technical skills, and are flexible and adaptable so that you can fit studying around other commitments.

If you are looking for a professional career in construction - such as management, architecture, design, quantity surveying, building surveying and land surveying - then this is the course for you.

Entry Requirements

To access this course you are required to be aged over 18 and have:

- English and maths GCSE at grade 4 or above
- At least one A Level OR
- Level 3 BTEC National Certificate / BTEC National Diploma in construction or related discipline

Please note:

- Mature students with out the necessary qualifications will be considered in light of relevant work and life experience
- Non-EU students will require an IELTS 6 or equivalent University of Wolverhampton qualification

What will I learn?

During this course, you will study the following units:

- Construction technology
- Science and materials
- Construction practice and management
- Legal and statutory responsibilities in construction
- Construction information (drawing, detailing, specification)
- Tender and procurement
- Civil engineering technology
- Individual project

What skills will I gain?

By studying this course you will gain knowledge and understanding of:

- Management principles
- Management of construction organisations and human resources
- Basic construction planning
- Elements of site administration

How will I be assessed?

This is an assessment-based course are there no exams.

You will be continually assessed throughout the programme on both theoretical and practical aspects.

What can I do next?

This course provides a solid grounding in construction and the built environment on which you can build by:

- Pursuing a career in the construction management industry
- Progressing on to a HTQ Level 5 / HND / Degree

Why study with us?

We have over 95% success rate on this course and excellent feedback from former students, many of whom have gone on to become successful construction site managers, surveyors, estimators and technicians.

Delivery

Location: Wellington Road Campus

Start Date: 30/09/2024

Day: Various

Time: 2 days per week

Course Fee: £5,500

Course Code: X0020

Study Mode: Full-time

Apply online: www.wolvcoll.ac.uk/apply