
Find out more about your local Bereavement Information Hub

Bereavement Information Hubs are an informal, friendly place to meet and talk to others who have experienced loss and grief. Turn over to find out more.

The death of a loved one can turn your life upside down. Everybody's experience of grief can be different but many find that talking can help.

Bereavement hubs are run by trained volunteers and offer the chance for you to express your feelings and share experiences with others who are experiencing loss and grief. The hubs are also a great space where you can access information about other services that you may find useful.

Bereavement hubs are free to attend and there's no need to book in advance.
